Sub: - Licensing as medical practitioner in India
Ref: - Continuation to my previous letters

Respected Sir,

Through your office I want to know answers to below written four questions from the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare or the National Medical Commission about the law of Licensing of a medical practitioner in India for foreigners.

Question -1: What is the law in India for Licensing of a medical practitioner in India incase of a foreigner has done his or her Medical Doctor Degree from India?

Question -2: What is the law in India for Licensing of a medical practitioner in India incase of a foreigner has done his or her Medical Doctor Degree from abroad?

Question -3: Has the Indian Government or the National Medical Commission or erstwhile Medical Council of India ever given a license to practice medicine in India, to any person who is a citizen of a foreign country and has a medical doctor degree or diploma from a foreign country?

Question -4: Has the Indian Government or the National Medical Commission or erstwhile Medical Council of India ever given a license to practice medicine in India to any person who is a citizen of a foreign country and has his medical doctor degree or diploma issued from India?

Look forward to a detailed response.

Sincerely Yours,

Ravi Kumar Koul
